BOOSTERS WELL PLEASED.

El Paso Visitors Well Received by Nogales Boosters.

The "Pep, Push and Progress" excursionists from El Paso, making a nine days' business and pleasure visit to points in Arizona, including the Grand Canyon, arrived yesterday morning at nine thirty, one hour behind schedule time, in their splendid special train. The boosters were accompanied by the Sixth Infantry band.

The visitors were met by Captain L. W. Mix, acting mayor, Col. Bird, vice president of the Chamber of Commerce, Ben Evans, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce reception committee, Secretary J. B. Bristol and a score of other local boosters, who joined in the big parade, and later entertained the visitors by showing them over the city in automobiles.

Many of the visitors expressed regret that they could not remain longer in the best town they had visited since coming to Arizona.

Through the courtesy of F. F. Rodriguez, the hardware man, the newspaper men with the party made an informal visit on General Calles, in Nogales, Sonora, and all expressed pleasure at the meeting. They also paid Mayor Cardenas of Nogales, Sonora, a high compliment for the many civic improvements evidenced in the town across the line.

The excursionists left about twelve-thirty, for Tucson. They will spend Sunday at the Grand Canyon.

The "Pep, Push and Progress" bunch were glad they came. All expect to return. They will be welcome.
